Gordon and John Winterton of 80 acres to Joseph Taylor for property.

By 1866, Indians had in the Black Hawk War broken together in Heber City for protection of a left behind, and many chose Indian parties.

Late in 1867 the Indian residents began moving back chose Charleston as their home the community.

Shortly after the city townsite on which a more twenty city blocks, each 20 surveyed. The streets were munity for more than 20 years, and was ready for incorporation by December of 1899. The articles of incorporation were drawn up on December 30, 1899, with John M. Ritchie as president and William Daybell, G. W. Daybell, H. J. Wagstaff and George T. Baker as trustees. The first meeting of the board of the newly incorporated community was held January 10, 1900. Lucy A. Jacobs was named clerk with L. E. Barrows as town marshal.

During 1905 the community cooperated with Heber City and the county in building an electric power plant. A heavy debt was carried by the community for many years, but the plant became a successful venture and operated for several years. Joining again with the county in 1931 and 1932, Charleston officials bonded the community for $100,000 and helped rebuild the power plant. The plant was able to compete with commercial power prices and still pay good dividends to supplement community funds. With funds from the power plant, all streets in the
